SPOTLIGHT

FOREWORD

Never before in man's advancing civilization has it been more imperative that each person contribute some talent to society. Sylacauga High recognizes its duty to develop responsible individuals through a well-rounded curriculum. In the following pages THE 1961 SYHISCAN Staff spotlights the many phases of this curriculum.

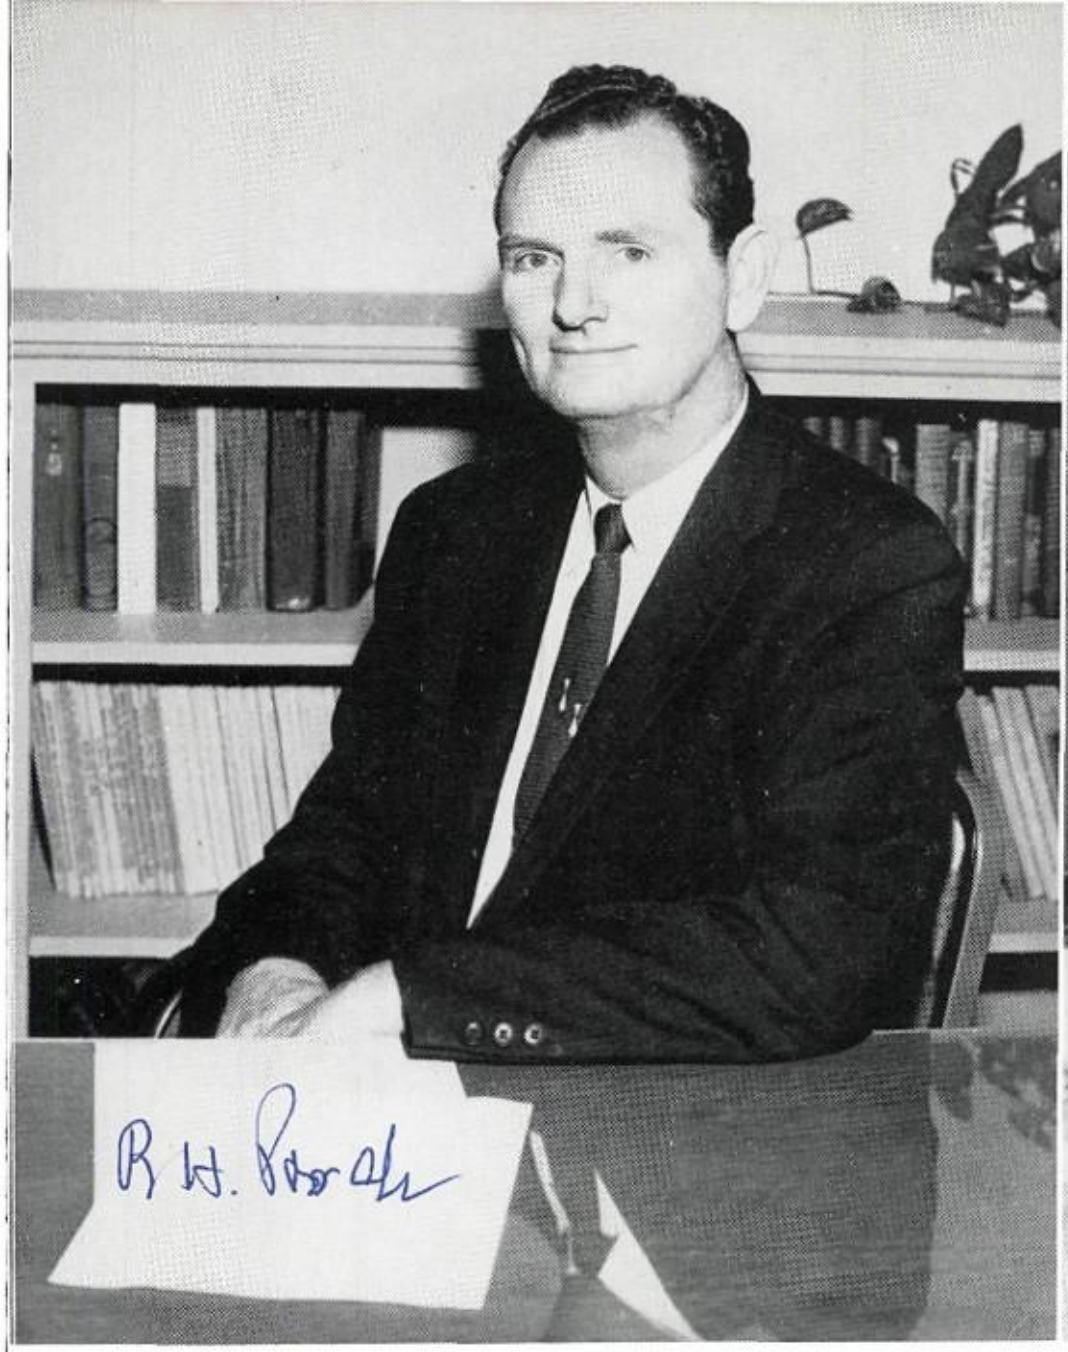
Faculty and Administration

MR. C. L. MARTIN

Our Superintendent has worked diligently to secure the proper facilities that our school needs to function well: He is one who is deeply interested in helping and encouraging the students of this high school. He commands the respect and love of everyone with whom he comes in contact. Because he has served the school so well, the Syhiscan spotlights Mr. Martin.

MRS. C. L. MARTIN Bookkeeper

MRS. BETTY DeLOACH Secretary



MR. R. H. PORCH

Our principal has been our friend and adviser for the past six years. Fairness and co-operation are characteristic of his supervision. We shall long remember his active interest in school life and student advancement, his untiring efforts to promote scholastic achievement, and his devotion to administrative duties. To know him is to understand why Sylacauga High School has moved forward.
